

The Fair Housing Five & the Haunted House

a new book for children about civil rights

Written by the Greater New Orleans Fair Housing Action Center • Illustrated by Sharika Mahdi

About the Book:

Samaria and her friends like everything about their clubhouse except the haunted house across the street. But when Samaria and her mother need to find a place to live, they realize they are dealing with a much bigger problem than ghosts or monsters. Join the Fair Housing Five as they work together to take creative action against housing discrimination in their community.

The Fair Housing Five is a new book for children ages 6 and up. It is designed to initiate conversations between parents, caregivers, teachers and children about discrimination, inequality, and the important role that we all have in ending both. GNOFHAC offers workshops and curricular tools to accompany the book.
