

Norwalk Department of Police Services

One Monroe Street, Norwalk CT 08654

COLD CASE INVESTIGATIONS

CASE: 80-40947

CASE TYPE: Homicide

DATE: 11-22-1980

NO PHOTO AVAILABLE

LOCATION: Canfield Street – (Taylor Farm Entrance)

VICTIM: Thelma “Cookie” Middleton

SUSPECTS: White Male, mid 30s, blonde/gray hair

SUMMARY: On Saturday, November 22nd, 1980 at approximately 6:25am, the body of Thelma Middleton, a black female age 32, was found alongside Canfield Street at the entrance to Taylor Farm by an unknown motorist who called the Police. Officers responded to the scene to find Middleton deceased from gunshot wounds. The victim was fully clothed at the time she was found. Middleton was a known prostitute that worked a small area in South Norwalk. She was last seen around 0530 hrs entering a 2dr dark blue Saab or Volvo with a white male with blonde/gray hair. The vehicle was observed heading from South Norwalk to East Norwalk over the Stroffolino Bridge. Approximately 45 minutes later her fully clothed body was found at the entrance to Taylor Farm.

CONTACT: Anonymous Tip-Line (203)-854-3111

Text: to CRIMES (274637) and “NPD” with info in text.

<https://www.tipsubmit.com/WebTips.aspx?AgencyID=143>